

STARGAZERS YEAR 5

As writers we are....

Writing character profiles of aliens.

Writing an article for a magazine "Space Race" about the day man landed on the Moon.

Writing a free verse poem about gravity.

As mathematicians we are...

Practising all four operations- including word problems, learning about place value up to 1000000 including decimals.

Measuring and calculating perimeter.

Drawing and measuring angles.

As Historians we are...

Researching Sir Isaac Newton and Galileo Galilei.

As artists we are...

Drawing our own aliens after studying classic and contemporary designs from books, cartoons, games and films

As scientists we are...

Finding out about the movement of the Earth, and other planets, relative to the Sun in the solar system.

Finding an explanation for day and night.

As athletes we are....

Playing attacking and defending games.

PE sessions are: Monday afternoon and Wednesday afternoon.

Homework activities:

Given out every Friday to be handed in by Tuesday morning.

Independent Research Log every half-term.

Weekly spelling test every Thursday.

In RE we are...

Learning about commitments

Learning about Peace and Conflict