

Book Recommendations

Miss Evans recommends this book:

I enjoyed this book as a child and I remember choosing this book because of the link with animals. It shows the impact animals can have on people's lives and highlights how important it is to never give up and value friendships.