

Book Recommendations

Mrs Ross-Nichol recommends this book:

A recent children's book that I have read is, Skellig by David Almond. I enjoyed it because there are many layers in the story. It is about life and death, the differences between people, unexpected friendship and connections from earth and another realm.